Can I have my samples tested at MRC Holland?

This article was retrieved from support.mrcholland.com on Saturday, 21st May 2022.

Unfortunately you cannot send your samples to MRC Holland for testing.

MRC Holland develops and produces many different products and reagents but does not have a testing facility. However, some of our customers do offer MLPA-based tests on a service basis. To find a lab that offers MLPA testing in your area, contact us or use an internet search engine.
